Dear Cousins

If you weren't in Somerset County reunion weekend — you really missed it! What a wonderful time we all had. My concerns about all these strangers coming together for what was to be a family reunion were unfounded. Beginning in the hospitality suite on Friday evening this family of strangers warmed instantly and for the rest of the weekend acted as if they had known each other all their lives! We kept the hospitality suite open until the wee hours of the morning getting to know each other and just having fun. There was no doubt as to which room the Younkins were gathered in — you just had to follow the noise! Fortunately for us we had Younkins in every room on that wing of the hotel so no one complained about us (at least I don't think they did).

Then bright and early on Saturday morning everyone met in the lobby of the hotel and off they all went to the various tours. Around 1 p.m. we all met back at the Kingwood Grove. Thanks to the quick thinking of Leroy and Juanita Younkin and sister, Donna Younkin Foss we have a guest book signed by nearly everyone that attended the reunion. (I don't know what I would have done without that, thanks!)

My thanks to the volunteers that helped with the reunion—Kay Lynn Younkin Wilson, Avis Younkin Engleka, Everett Sechler, Loretta Kelldorf, and many others that chipped in when they were needed. You all helped to make this a very memorable event for all of us. THANK YOU!

A special thanks to Avis Younkin Engleka who so generously donated a spray of flowers to adorn our picnic table on Saturday — thanks for your thoughtfulness.

One of the highlights of the day was the appearance of a helicopter and out stepped its owner Ed Younkin, of Connellsville, Pa., with his family. The kids were thrilled not to mention the adults. Ed was hoping to give people rides but time just didn't permit it — hopefully he'll bring it back next year!

Dr. C. George Younkin was a big hit at the picnic in his Younkin coat-of-arms T-shirt. Everyone wanted to know where he got it! You'll be pleased to know that he and Loretta Kelldorf are working on getting some made, from the painting of the arms Loretta brought to the reunion, for next year's reunion. We're hoping to have T-shirts and sweatshirts.

The food, provided by Oakhurst Restaurant, was wonderful and at one point I asked everyone if they would prefer a "covered-dish" next year. The answer was a resounding NO!

Gathering everyone together for the group picture was something but the results were well worth all the efforts. The pictures are available to everyone (see ordering instructions inside). In addition, we have a videotape of both of the tours and the picnic. There was so much to do on Sat. and too little time to get around to all the attendees to get their family history on tape. But I think everyone is on it somewhere! We'll try to do better next year with more volunteers.

I am sure you've been to reunions where as soon as the food is served people get ready to leave — well, we didn't leave the I.O.O.F. Grove on Sat. until 8:30 p.m. (and only because it was getting too dark!).

As it is with all good things — they must come to an end. On Sunday afternoon when all the activities ended, and we were preparing to leave, there was a little sadness as we all knew it would probably be at least another year before we would get together again. See you all again next August!

Inside this issue you will see an offer from Roger Yonkin, of Ithaca, N.Y., to compile a JUNGHEN FAMILY COOKBOOK. I am very excited about this project and it is my sincere hope that we will have 100% participation! What a wonderful and useful keepsake this will be for all of us.

1991 Reunion Group Picture

The reunion group picture came out quite well (not even one person got 'cut off!'), thanks to the excellent work of Kay Lynn (Younkin) Wilson.

Kay can have it printed in a choice of two sizes: 5 x 7 and 14 x 16. It will be important to remember that once a photograph is blown up to the 14 x 16 size some of the clarity is lost. The picture is a little clearer in the 5 x 7 size but of course it is 5 x 7 too. The choice is yours about the size.

The 5 x 7 will be $5 and 14 x 16 will be $15.

Please order them directly from Kay Lynn Wilson at:
RD #1 Box 157, Markleton, Pa. 15551
Phone: 814-926-3146

Younkin Coat-of-Arms T-Shirts

Many people at the reunion were fascinated with Dr. C. George Younkin's "coat-of-arms" T-shirt and several have asked me if they could get one too.

Well, George is working on it. We are going to take the coat of arms drawing that was made by Loretta Kelldorf (remember the gorgeous blue one that I showed you at the reunion!) and see what it will cost to have it screen printed to put on T-shirts and sweatshirts. They should be available for next year's reunion.

This stone was found at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, on Church Hill Rd., near Ferndale, Bucks Co., Pa. St Luke's is the church Herman Junghen attended and it is not too far from Keller's Lutheran Church where his brother attended. Abraham is no doubt a descendant of Herman's but there is much more work to be done on his family to prove this assumption. The photo on top shows Abraham's stone, and the bottom photo shows the church and graveyard. [Photo courtesy of Bob Grim Rufe, of 119 Meriden Dr., Hockessin, Delaware 19707; Bob's ancestors were also founding members of St. Luke's Lutheran Church. Though Bob is not a Younkin, his ancestry includes many allied names: HARTZELL, NYCE, ERDMAN, ROMIG, KELLER, STEINER, FREDERICK, WAGNER, KEISER, FREY, RUFE/RUFF, GRIM, HOUP (HAUPT?). He would welcome correspondence with others of similar lines. BOB, thanks for going to all this trouble for us YOUNKINS!]

Pamela Ward & Todd Younkin wed in double ring ceremony

Pamela Kay Ward, daughter of Donnie and Melinda Ward, Frankfort, became the bride of Todd Andrew Younkin, son of Ronald and Barbara Younkin, Lockbourne, on June 29, 1991, at the St. Matthew Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lockbourne.

The Rev. C. King Bradow officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Kimberly Myers, sister of the bride, served as the matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Tamara Younkin, sister of the groom, Brenda Hite, Kelly Niese, Rebecca Kauffeld, and Lori Jeffries, all friends of the bride.

Trevor Younkin, brother of the groom, served as the best man.

The ushers were Thomas Cassell, Geoffrey Hite, Timothy Green, Randall Kauffeld, and James Allbright, all friends of the groom.

Kortney Ward, sister of the bride, served as flower girl.

The ring bearer was Seth Oglesby, cousin of the bride.

The ceremony was followed by a carriage ride through the town of Lockbourne.

The bride is a graduate of Adena High School and Capital University. She is currently employed by Adena Local Schools as a high school mathematics teacher. She is working on her masters degree through the University of Dayton.

The groom is a graduate of Teays Valley High School and Capital University. He is currently employed by Roehrenbeck Electric as a draftsman and is working on his second degree at Franklin University, electrical technology.

The couple took a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, Busch Gardens, and colonial Williamsburg.

The couple resides in Lockbourne.

Aaron Charles Engleka

Carrick Sterling Younkin

Bradley Raymond Wilson

Aaron Charles Engleka — born 7 June 1991, son of Nathan C. & Sharon (Kelly) Engleka. Grandson of Avis (Younkin) Engleka of Rockwood, and Carl Arthur Engleka. [descendants of Jacob and (Hannah Nicola) Younkin]

Carrick Sterling Younkin — 22 July 1991, in Springfield, IL., son of Dr. Casey and Linda Younkin. He weighed 9 pounds, 6 ounces. His grandparents are Glenn and Peggy Younkin, also of Springfield, IL. [descendants of Rudolph and Elizabeth (Hackman) Younkin]

Bradley Raymond Wilson— born 7 July 1991, at Washington Hospital, Washington, PA., son of Douglas Andrew and Amy Lynn (Hoge) Wilson. He weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces and was 20 inches long. His grandparents are Rev. Donlad P. and Deborah (Mecouch) Wilson and Lt Col Carl C. Hoge and Iva Jane (Swihart) Verner. [descendants of John M. and Catharina (___?) Younkin]

David Younkin

David Younkin, one of Milford's industrious farmers, was born in Turkey Foot Township, June 14, 1814, son of Henry and Elizabeth (Weimer) Younkin. Both his father and mother were of German descent. His earliest paternal ancestor in America settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Henry Younkin's father, Jacob Younkin, accompanied by his brothers John and Frederick, moved from Berks County to Turkey Foot Township, and all settled there as pioneers. Jacob married Hannah Nicols, and reared a large family.

Henry Younkin was a lifelong resident of Turkey Foot Township, where he acquired both wealth and prominence as an agriculturalist, and was a highly respected citizen. His wife, Elizabeth, was a daughter of John Weimer. Her maternal grandfather, Casper Harbaugh, served in the French and Indian War, being under Washington's command at the time of Braddock's defeat. Henry and Elizabeth Younkin were the parents of nine children, eight of whom grew to maturity. Of these, two are now living: David, the subject of this sketch; and Rachel, who resides in Randolph County, Illinois.

David Younkin was educated in the public schools of Turkey Foot and Milford Townships. When quite young he left home to live with a Mr. Will, and at the age of twenty he went to Louisiana, where he remained for some time. Upon his return he entered his father's employ as a farm assistant, but later went to Lavansville, Somerset Township, where he worked for a year; and for the next seven years he resided in Milford. Purchasing a farm in Lexington, Pa., he made various

I Married a Younkin

Okay.....OKAY! So I didn't attend the Younkin Family Reunion. And Donna said the turn-out was super, and the people were great, and the weather was nice, and the food and accommodations were very good, and everyone attending seemed to have a really fine time.....AND, I didn't attend. She also said that some people were disappointed in not getting the chance to meet me (although, she also intimated that none of the Younkins who do know me expressed any of the same disappointment).

SO, why wasn't I there with my lovely Younkin wife and family? What possible excuse could I have to miss this most special of occasions? (Give me a minute or two I'll come up with something).

Let's see... it could have been that I was afraid. Yeah, that's it. Donna said there were a bunch of Younkins who were asking about me. And considering all of the "not-so-nice" things that I've said about Younkins in past issues of this Newsletter, they might have had some special plans for me. (And since I've never met them, they could have been a lot bigger than me). So, to avoid the possible misunderstandings that might arise, along with the equally possible pain and swelling that might ensue, I chose to avoid the first reunion. (At least until Donna could scope-out the temperament of her newly located cousins -- and their size -- and their propensity for having shotguns in the back window of their pickups, etc.).

But maybe that wasn't the reason. No, maybe the real reason was that I was protesting the 'YOUNKIN' family reunion. I'm not a Younkin. I'm an I.M.A.Y. The invitation was not for the YOUNKIN/I.M.A.Y. Reunion! As usual, we were overlooked, disregarded, and treated like second-class relatives. Well, enough is enough! Go ahead and have your "private" and "exclusive" little family reunion. You can do it without ME! This is my formal protest! I won't attend until I.M.A.Y.s begin to be treated with dignity and equality! (As a true I.M.A.Y. though, I did get all the credit card bills from the reunion, so it's not like I was completely left out...)

Or maybe it was another, more personal reason. Maybe I was trying to protect my sanity. Every Christmas, and Thanksgiving, and all of the other birthdays and holidays that I attend each year with usually 5 to 15 Younkins, are ... how can I put this politely ... somewhat difficult to get through. And the very thought of spending 2+ days with more than 100 Yooouunkinnnnssss!!!!!! ("Hey Donna, do we still have some of that Valium the doctor gave me after last Christmas?").

Or, maybe I was really there. But I wore a disguise. Yeah, that's the reason. In the woods, at the outskirts of the park, did any of you notice a guy dressed very much like Homey the Clown? Well, that was me. And I whispered "hello" to everyone, but no one seemed to notice....

Or, the reason I wasn't there was that I really don't exist at all. Donna made me up. She's really not married, and her "daughter", who attended the reunion, was a neighbor girl from down the street who Donna hired. Yeah, Donna is so much into family, that it just kills her that she is a totally unmarried lady with a vivid imagination.

Or there is one other possible excuse that I can offer for not attending the reunion. I was invited to play golf and go trout fishing in Vermont as the guest of a "business affiliate". (In other words, it was free). The only problem was that my invitation was at the same time that the reunion was scheduled, and there were no rain-checks possible. Friends, I had a couple of tormented nights trying to decided what would be the right and proper thing to do....

So, what was the real reason I didn't attend the reunion? I'll let you be the final judge. (But just to give you a hint, here's of a photo this humble I.M.A.Y. taken on the day of the reunion....).

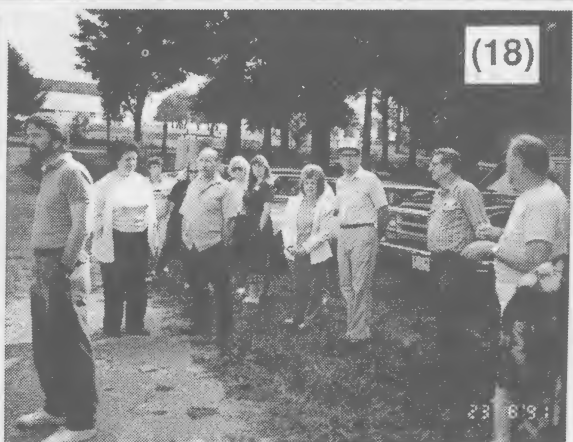

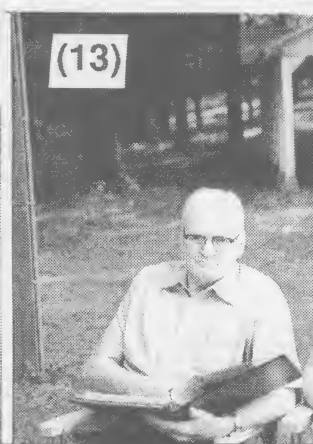

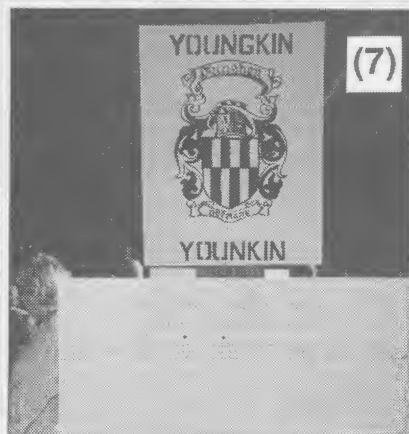

In all honesty, I will make every effort to attend the next one. Donna has convinced me that it was absolutely tremendous! And from the videos I saw, I believe it really was!

Highlights of the 1991 Younkin Family Reunion

(2) Getting organized for the group picture.

(4) (5) The Henry family welcomed our visit to their farm. This is the original land which was patented to Frederick G. Younkin and wife Catherine (Patton). The Henry family are direct descendants of Frederick and the land has always been in the Younkin family. #4 shows the two Henry sisters, Oma and Vida, they live with their brother, Wilbur.

(6) Getting ready for the tour on Sunday are C. George Younkin and Violet Esterman. In the background are Bob and Freda Steele.

(7) Thanks to the gorgeous artwork of Loretta Kelldorf, of Katy, TX., we had these wonderful coats of arms all over Somerset County directing people to the reunion. You should have seen how quick they disappeared afterwards! Loretta is also responsible for the charts that you see at the bottom of this picture. They really helped people to see their connections to the Younkin lines.

(8) Donna (Younkin) Logan and Beverly Palarino at the hospitality suite Friday evening.

(9) There was certainly no doubt as to whose family reunion was in the Kingwood I.O.O.F. Grove that Saturday. Kay Lynn Wilson provided this sign and the balloons.

(10) It took a lot of organization — but it was worth it! The group picture, taken by Kay Lynn Wilson, is wonderful.

(11) Getting ready for the tour on Sunday, Mark Miner, far right, tells all the drivers where they will be going. From left, Barbara Younkin, Delano D. Younkin, Ronald Younkin, Beverly Palarino, Violet Esterman, and Loretta Kelldorf.

(12) Randy Younkin and Luanne (Younkin) Pritts. Randy is readying his crayons for a day of rubbing tombstones.

(13) Walter and Helen Robertson enjoy going through the many family histories people brought with them.

(14) Need I say more — see what you missed — um um good!

(15) Tom and Evelyn Younkin, of Ashland, OH. Tom's father, Otto Younkin, was the president of the Younkin Family Association back in the 1930s and '40s. Tom brought a box full of his father's files to share with everyone. And then was good enough to let me borrow it all until next year's reunion so that I can have a chance to go over it all. So far, I have been able to trace back 6 of our subscriber's lines thanks to the information in these files! What a gold mine! Thanks for saving it Tom!

(16) Juanita Younkin, Donna (Younkin) Foss and Leroy 'Lee' Younkin stand next to their grandfather Wesley Younkin's tombstone. Wesley was killed by lightning while standing under a tree. His stone is shaped like a log and has engraved on it "Killed By Lightning."

(17) Donald E. Younkin, of Frederick, MD., and Ailene Lantz of Catonsville, MD. in the hospitality suite Friday evening.

(20) Imagine our surprise when Ed Younkin, of Connellsville, made a grand entrance to the picnic in his helicopter, to the delight of young and old alike! Ed's only disappointment was that there just wasn't enough time to give everyone a ride. Maybe next year, Ed!

(21) Oakhurst Restaurant did a wonderful job with the catering — they've got my vote next year.

Oldest Ohio Twins Are 90 Today

From the 21 April, 1935 issue of Cleveland [Ohio] Plain Dealer

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, April 20 — More than the usual preparation for Easter Sunday festivities are being made in the home of Mrs. Margaret Black near East Fultonham, southwest of here, tomorrow.

For it is also the 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Black and Eli Younken [sic] of Sayre, in Perry County, who are believed to be Ohio's oldest twins. Mrs. Black's seven children and their families will be there. Younken's three sons and a daughter and their children will share the Easter-birthday cake, too.

Mrs. Black was injured in a fall five years ago and gets around in a wheel chair. Younken, on the other hand, has been sick but once in his life and chops wood every day.

"My wind isn't what it used to be, though," Younken admitted. "I'm not bragging, but I used to bind all the wheat one man could cradle, while other cradlers had two men behind them. I'm still pretty spry at it."

"I was 18 when Morgan's Raiders crossed into Ohio," Mrs. Black recalled, "Don't believe all you hear about how they terrorized everybody. They came right into our farmyard and I went right on with my work. They never bothered me."

Honor your Union Civil War Veteran

Submitted by: Ginny Toney of Houston, TX.:

NOTE: Ginny sent in her ancestor Jesse Lazear Barnett (who married a YOUNKIN)

The Department of Army at the US Army Military History Institute is trying to make a permanent display of Union Soldiers for the Museum.

If you have a picture of your Union Civil War Veteran you can send it along with his NAME, RANK, UNIT, DATES of SERVICE, BIRTH and DEATH dates, and MARRIAGE information to:

Michael J. Winey, curator
Department of the Army
US Army Military History Institute
Carlisle Barracks, Pa. 17013

It may take as long as two months to get your pictures back, but they will send you a complimentary 8 x 10 glossy print when they return your original picture. Mine were returned in the original packages. You may also write for a "franked" mailing label to mail the photo free of charge.

Notes from Dushore

By Roger Willard Yonkin
26 German Cross Road
Ithaca, N.Y. 14850

The Yonkin reunion was held in Dushore, Pa., on July 28, 1991. Fourteen persons were present the youngest being 50 years old. This group has slowly decreased in number over the years and no amount of advertising has encouraged new attendees. Further research and a hopeful publication of a "Yonkin" history including direct contact with some family members may spark an interest in youngsters.

My father (John Willard Yonkin, known as "Willard") related the following story from his youth as to his family's first encounter with the automobile.

My grandfather, Frank Yonkin, had a farm on one side of the valley in sight of his father Edward's farm situated on the valley's opposite ridge. To visit, Frank would place the entire family in a wagon, drive down across the fields to the road where the team would stop and my grandfather Frank would remove one set of fence rails.

The wagon was then driven into the road (stradling the road) stopped, and the rails were replaced while the fence rails in front were removed. The wagon, after being driven through this opposite fence was stopped, and again the fence rails behind were replaced.

After dark one night, the wagon was stopped across the road inbetween the rails. As Frank descended to remove the rails in front, a commotion was heard approaching along the darkened road. One can only imagine what the family thought of this noise emanating from a conveyance they had heard about, but never encountered. The children were screaming and his wife Fannie (Bird) was very upset, but grandfather Frank decided he was going to show his disdain for this "modern" transportation and did so by removing the opposite fence rails and the wagon from the road as slowly as he could manage.

JUNGHEN Family Cookbook

I would like to produce a "Junghen" family cookbook. This will be a useful family keepsake for all of us. Please send any recipes which you believe to be Junghen/Younkin/Yonkin/etc. in origin or even just a family favorite. Most importantly, give me the name of the person you originally obtained it from (i.e. Grandmother Martha Yonkin) and any history related to the recipe (i.e. it was served every Thanksgiving, it was served only once a year, or every Sunday) Send them to Roger Yonkin, 26 German Cross Rd., Ithaca, N.Y. 14850. Please remember if it is out of a published cookbook (not your original) be sure to give the name of the cookbook.

(please make this correction to your last issue of the YFNB)

In the YFNB-Vol. 2 #3, pg. 8, "ATTENTION...RHOADS FAMILY RESEARCHERS"— I listed Barbara Erlenbach of 15 Dorset Lane, Brookfield, CT. 06804; and Roy Steiner of 4920 Manderson St., Omaha, NE. 68104-3016 as RHOADS family researchers. They are NOT — they are researching the NICOLA family of Bucks Co., Pa. (our same line!).

— Barbara Ford of 313 Henry Lane, Wallingford, PA. 19086 is the researcher of the RHOADS family of Bucks and Somerset County—she contacted me originally about the OVERHOLTZER/OVERHOLT lines as she is a member of their family organization and publishes their newsletter. She is also interested in the RHOADS.

improvements thereon, including the erection of new buildings, and tilled the soil with prosperous results for sixteen years, at the expiration of which he sold the property. Returning to Milford, he bought at sheriff's sale a two-hundred-acre farm, upon which he built a new and spacious barn. In 1876 he sold one hundred and thirteen acres to his son Fremont, since which time he has tilled about eighty-two acres and carries on general farming.

In 1837 Mr. Younkin was joined in marriage with Maria Culver, daughter of Elijah and Nancy (Scott) Culver, the latter a daughter of Mathias Scott, who built a forge in Milford, probably the first one in the place. Mrs. Younkin has had nine children, eight of whom are living, namely: Lucinda, who is unmarried, and lives in the parental home; Ann Elizabeth, who is the wife of Joseph Elder, and lives at Buffalo Mills; Augusta, wife of Alfred Evans, a Justice of the Peace and a prominent resident of Rockwood; Elias P., who resides in Meyersdale; Louisa, who married William McNeal, and resides in Iowa; Josephine, who married Mr. Currote, and lives in Montreal, P.Q.; Fremont, a prosperous farmer of Milford; and Benton, a resident of this township.

Younkins of Fayette County, Pa.

The Younkin family came originally from Germany and settled in Eastern Pennsylvania. The earliest progenitor of record is Charles Younkin, an early settler of Fayette County. He was a prosperous farmer, the YOUNKINS usually being tillers of the soil. Among the children of Charles Younkin was a daughter Charlotta.

(II) Charlotta, daughter of Charles Younkin, was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania; she married George A. Younkin, probably a cousin. He was a farmer of Springfield Township, and fought in the Civil War, a private of the Fifteenth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. Both George A. Younkin and his wife died in Fayette County, leaving issue [children].

(III) William Dayton, son of George A. and Charlotta (Younkin) Younkin, was born in Springfield Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania, September 3, 1866, died December 23, 1910. He attended the township schools and grew up on the farm of his father. After marriage he settled on a good farm of his own in the township, containing one hundred and eighty acres. He was also a stock raiser and dealer. He was a Republican in politics, holding the township offices of assessor, collector, school director and others. He was a member of the United Brethren Church, and a man held in highest esteem. He married Lucinda Harbaugh, who survives him and continues on the home farm in Springfield Township. She was born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, September 11, 1866, daughter of David and Lena (Whipke) [?Whipkey] Harbaugh, both born in Somerset County, where he died December 13, 1910, and she still resides. He was a farmer, and a veteran of the Civil War. He was a son of Leonard Harbaugh, born in Germany, emigrated to the American colonies about 1775, fought in the Revolutionary War under General Washington, and later under the soldier martyr Colonel William Crawford. He later settled in Somerset County, where he died. It is from this brave old Revolutionary soldier that the Harbaughs of Somerset descend. Children of William Dayton and Lucinda (Harbaugh) Younkin: Laura B., married Jacob Schroyer, and resides in Springfield Township; Charles A., now engaged in the wholesale grocery business at Brownsville, Pennsylvania, married Saloma Hall; G. Osborne, of whom further; Viola married J. E. Mountain, and lives at Greensburg, Pennsylvania; Ira David, now engaged with his brother in the wholesale produce business in Connellsville, unmarried; James Franklin; Warren; William Gustin; Lena; Wilman, died in infancy. The last four living children reside on the home farm in Springfield Township.

(IV) G. Osborne [see his lineage chart below], son of William Dayton Younkin, was born on the homestead farm, Springfield Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1882. He was educated in the public school, and remained on the home farm with his parents until 1903. He then came to Connellsville and entered mercantile life as clerk in the grocery store of F. L. Brendle, remaining two years; then for one year with J. R. Davidson & Co., grocers; then until September, 1909, with F. T. Adams, wholesale produce; then with his brother, Ira D. Younkin, formed the firm of Younkin Brothers, and established a wholesale produce business at No. 136 West Peach Street, Connellsville, where they are now in successful operation. He is a Republican.

He married, August 7, 1911, Verona Matiben, born in Bullskin Township, Fayette County, June 13, 1889, daughter of Augustus Matiben, a farmer of that township.

Charles & Nancy (Henry) Younkin

Hal G. Ferguson, of Rexburg, Idaho, wrote me a while back and indicated his interest in the Younkin family and especially the Younkins that intermarried with the Henry family. Hal said, "I don't have 'on hands' evidence that Nancy Henry and is in fact the daughter of John Henry and Elizabeth Imel, nor that she married Charles L. Younkin. I have received this information from others..."

Well, here is something for your files, Hal.—The following is a power of attorney from Nancy Younkin to her husband Charles Younkin:

"to dispose of my share of the real and personal estate of my father John Henry dec'd [deceased] late of Somerset County State of Pennsylvania." — signed Nancy Younkin, August 8, 1860.

The witnesses were: Samuel Vanatta and James P. Vanatta. Source: Mortgage book #1, Page 176, Green County, Pennsylvania.

History of the Jersey Baptist Church

"Turkey-Foot Baptist Church — This organization, which is more commonly known as the Jersey Baptist Church, is the oldest Baptist church west of the Allegheny mountains. It is the oldest church of any kind in Somerset County, and perhaps the oldest in southwestern Pennsylvania. For many years after its organization, Maryland and Virginia settlers were among its members, while Sandy Creek Glades, Virginia, formed a portion of its parish. The Turkey-Foot church is the parent of all the Baptist churches included in a region hundreds of miles in extent. The following is an exact copy of page seven of the minutes of the Turkey-Foot Baptist Church:

"The minutes of the proceedings of the church belonging *to Turkey-Foot and Sandy Creek Glades. On Wednesday, the fourteenth day [of August], Anno Domini 1775, the Rev. Mr. Isaac Sutton and John Corbley met this church at the house of Moses Halls in Turkey-Foot, and after a sermon on the occasion they solemnly constituted a church in these places jointly consisting of the following members as subscribed to the succeeding covenant:

"Robert Colburn, Jacob Rush, David Rush, John Rush, John King, Benjamin Leonard, James Mitchel, Willets Skinner, Nicles Hartzell, Mary Rush, Mary Coventon, Mary Rush, Margaret Rush, Lucia Jones, Elizabeth Mountain, Sarah Skinner, Frankey Ketchem, Rebecca King."

"April 5, 1789, William Blain was baptized and received into the church. July 4, 1789, Rebecca Blain was baptized and received into the church. Among other names of members belonging to the church we find the Whittakers, Melicks, Truaxes, Bosleys, Membles, Gordons, Kings, Joneses, Walls, Lobdills, Melotts, Tannehills, Woodmencys and Reams.

"The first house was built in January, 1788. It was a two-story log structure with gallery, and was used as church, schoolhouse, and, tradition says, at one time as a blockhouse. While attending, many of the early settlers brought their rifles, which stood in a corner until service was concluded. The second house, a frame building, was erected in 1838; the third, also a frame, was finished in 1877, at a cost of twenty-five hundred dollars. At that time Mrs. Jane Brook, widow of John Brook and daughter of Hon. James Hanna, Sr., and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Forquer, paid to the building fund over twelve hundred dollars.

"In 1862 Rebecca King bequeathed two thousand dollars to the use of the church; and in May, 1881, Mrs. Jane Brook donated one thousand dollars to be kept as a perpetual fund, the annual interest to be applied to paying the minister's salary.

"The first church officers mentioned in the record are Robert Colburn and Isaac Dwire, elders, in 1795; Jacob Rush, appointed deacon, vice Reuban Skinner, in September, 1796; Robert Colburn was ordained elder and Jacob Rush deacon, October 8, 1796. ...

"Membership in September 1883, was sixty-five.

"*The names given are in the same handwriting, and were evidently all written at the same time; though probably not at the time the church was formed. Other names not here given seem to have been added later, without dates to distinguish them from the first given constituent members."
